

Vote Gary Roesch

for Grand Island Town Councilman

Gary Roesch has announced his candidacy for Grand Island Town Councilman. Gary is a member of the Conservative Party and was first elected to the Town Board in 2003. Gary's platform is to continue to:

- Provide strong commitment to responsible government.
- Believes in providing sound fiscal management to town residents without sacrificing the quality of services.
- Current liaison to the Planning Board, Economic Development Advisory Board, Cable-Communication Committee, Safety Committee, Waste Water plant and Golden Age Executive Board.
- Leader in the Nike Base Master Plan.
- Leader in the Town Commons Master Plan
- Past Chairman of the Environmental Conservation Commission, Planning Board and Long Range Planning Committee.
- Military Service: US Naval Veteran, Member of the American Legion and VFW.

Gary and his wife, Carol, have resided on Grand Island for 50 years and after a 36 year career, retired as a manager from a local petroleum company. Gary and Carol are the proud parents of Todd (Karin), Tracy (Bobby) Williams and Gregg (Nicole) and grandparents to Lucia and Jack Roesch. Gary can be reached at groesch@roadrunner.com. or by phone at 773-3967 with any questions you may have regarding his campaign. He intends to visit as many residents as possible and is available to meet with any residents or groups.
